

PRESS RELEASE

Ann Coulter to Be Keynote Speaker at Wake Up America Tea Party on September 18, 2010, hosted by the 912 Project Fort Worth, Inc.

FORT WORTH, Texas, August 4, 2010 -- 912 Project Fort Worth Inc. announced plans today to host the Wake Up America Tea Party to be held on September 18, 2010 in Downtown Fort Worth.

The keynote speaker for Fort Worth's Wake Up America Tea Party will be Ann Coulter, a renowned author of seven New York Times bestsellers. Ms. Coulter is a frequent guest on many TV shows writes a popular syndicated column for Universal Press Syndicate. Additional speakers and entertainment include Suzanna Hupp, Pastor Stephen Broden, Debra Medina, Lloyd Marcus and Adrian Murray. Additional speakers and guests will be announced soon.

"We are excited to host Ann Coulter and other great patriots and know Texas will be excited to hear how to defeat the liberal agenda which is destroying America and shredding the U.S. Constitution," said Adrian Murray, President, 912 Project Fort Worth Inc. "Currently, our elected politicians in Washington D.C. refuse to listen to the people and continue to pass destructive socialist legislation against the will of the people. However, they will definitively hear the people in November when America takes to the polls."

The Wake Up America Tea Party is a FREE event. There a limited number of tickets available and can be reserved via the web at www.912ftw.org on a first come first serve basis.

The Tea Party will begin at 2 p.m. at the Fort Worth Convention Center Arena. The event will be promoted by News/Talk 660 KSKY and emceed by Jon-David Wells, the host of The Wells Report, which airs weekdays 5p-8p on News/Talk 660 KSKY. We encourage everyone to bring signs with words showing their frustrations with the policies and socialist agenda this country is headed. The Rally will have speakers, entertainment, and food, and the whole family is welcome.

About 912 Project Fort Worth

912 Project Fort Worth Inc. is a non-profit grassroots effort based on 9 Principles and 12 Values as proposed by Glenn Beck's 9-12 Project on March 13, 2009. By uniting with others who believe in the 9 principles and 12 values, we are standing together, united with one voice, demanding that all elected officials accountable to protect and defend the U.S. Constitution.

For full details on the event and on the 912 Project Fort Worth, visit <http://www.912ftw.org>.

About Ann Coulter

Ann Coulter is the author of seven New York Times bestsellers — Guilty: Liberal "Victims" and Their Assault on America (January, 2009), If Democrats Had Any Brains, They'd Be Republicans (October, 2007); Godless: The Church of Liberalism (June 2006); How to Talk to a Liberal (If You Must)(October, 2004); Treason: Liberal Treachery From the Cold War to the War on Terrorism (June 2003); Slander: Liberal Lies About the American Right (June 2002); and High Crimes and Misdemeanors: The Case Against Bill Clinton (August 1998).

Coulter is the legal correspondent for Human Events and writes a popular syndicated column for Universal Press Syndicate.

She is a frequent guest on many TV shows, including The Today Show, Good Morning America, The Tonight Show with Jay Leno, Hannity and Colmes, The Glen Beck Show, HBO's Real Time with Bill Maher, and has been profiled in numerous publications, including TV Guide, the Guardian (UK), the New York Observer, National Journal, Harper's Bazaar, and Elle magazine. She was the April 25, 2005 cover story of Time magazine.

In 2001, Coulter was named one of the top 100 Public Intellectuals by federal judge Richard Posner in 2001.

PRESS RELEASE

A Connecticut native, Coulter graduated with honors from Cornell University School of Arts & Sciences, and received her J.D. from University of Michigan Law School, where she was an editor of The Michigan Law Review.

Coulter clerked for the Honorable Pasco Bowman II of the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit and was an attorney in the Department of Justice Honors Program for outstanding law school graduates.

After practicing law in private practice in New York City, Coulter worked for the Senate Judiciary Committee, where she handled crime and immigration issues for Senator Spencer Abraham of Michigan. From there, she became a litigator with the Center For Individual Rights in Washington, DC, a public interest law firm dedicated to the defense of individual rights with particular emphasis on freedom of speech, civil rights, and the free exercise of religion.

Arrangements for the appearance of Ann Coulter made through Greater Talent Network Inc., New York, NY.

Web Site: <http://www.912ftw.org>

Contact: info@912ftw.org

Phone: 817-768-7783

###